10.00	Welcome
10.10	Briefing by ERC Civil Society Co-Chairs and Secretariat This briefing will present an overview of civil society perspectives, discussed at the CSO pre-conference, on the challenges and opportunities of the coalition.
10.40	Thematic Group on National Laws and Policies Panel: National Action Plans to Counter the Anti-gender Movement Leadership & Accountability The ERC Thematic Group on National Laws and Policies leads a state-led panel on how National LGBTQI+ Action Plans can respond to the anti-gender movement.	Roundtable: The Journey to LGBTQI+ Inclusive Development through Policy, Practice, Institutional This session provides an overview of the work of Multilateral Development Banks (MDBs), member states, private sector actors and LGBTQI+ CSOs to show the business case for inclusion. It highlights how policies can drive the practical delivery of inclusive development across sectors.
11.50	Lunch
12.50	Thematic Group on Sustainable Development Goals Panel: Advancing LGBTQI+ Inclusion in the SDGs: Overcoming Challenges and Building Resilience This panel highlights the intersection of LGBTQI+ rights with the Sustainable Development Goals. It explores how member states and civil society can collaboratively address challenges, by focusing on successful case studies, ongoing obstacles, and strategies to overcome setbacks.	Roundtable, Crisis point: Addressing the Rights and Dignity of Trans & Gender Diverse People This session looks at the evidence of how trans and gender diverse people are criminalised across all regional, religious and cultural borders. It will analyse how they are targeted by different laws and highlight support opportunities.
14.00	Thematic Group on International Diplomacy Panel: The Role of ERC Missions in Decriminalisation and Coordinating Crisis Response Closed event for ERC member states and CSO members only The session shares knowledge, insights and best practices on how ERC embassies and missions can practically engage and support LGBTQI+ organisations. It will discuss the ERC's added value when it comes to sharing information with capitals and with respect to country-specific diplomatic-civil society coordination. The working group will also launch a toolkit on this topic.	Roundtable: The Role of Courts in Advancing LGBTQI+ Rights and the Role of Strategic Litigation The session will share how to use strategic litigation to advance rights, as well as legal defence strategies against repression. It will highlight case studies to demonstrate how a wide range of organisations use litigation to deliver on LGBTQI+ rights, outlining what makes a case strategic, the human cost to both clients and lawyers, and risks and challenges in implementing judgements.
15.10	Break
15.30	Thematic Group on Donor Coordination Panel: Risk and Resilience: Resourcing LGBTQI+ Work in Closed and Closing spaces Closed event for ERC member states and CSO members only The increasing push-back against LGBTQI+ implies that resourcing the movement is becoming increasingly complex. This conversation between activists, governments, and rapid response funders is designed to explore risk from multiple perspectives and to contribute to a greater shared understanding, so as to ensure that work to defend fundamental freedoms continues while also safeguarding activists and communities.	Roundtable: Tackling Hate Crime & Violence against LGBTQI+ People through Coalition Building and Engaging in the Administration of Justice This session looks at how LGBTQI+ civil society is tackling the alarming trend of rising hate crimes and violence based on sexual orientation and/or gender identity and shows how the anti-gender/trans/rights movements are driving this increase. It explores best practices to address hate crimes, including by CSOs working in partnerships across institutions and communities.
16.40	Closing remarks, Germany & Mexico
